In February of this year, 1982, a meeting was held to form the first Ardsley Historical Society. The Captain Honeywell house, one of Ardsley's oldest homes, was the setting for this occasion.

The Society's purpose is to bring together those people interested in history, especially the history of Ardsley. In doing so, we will promote a better appreciation of our American heritage.

The Society's major function will be to discover and collect any material which help establish or illustrate the history of our area and to provide for its preservation and accessibility.

The elected officers are:

Pres
Arline Weston, President
- Beverly Levine, Vice President
Seekie Drysdale, Secretary
Caroline Brown, Co-Secretary
Madeline Piscitelli, Co-Secy.
Mary Lichtenberg, Treasurer
William Emerick

Claudia Didul, Publicity
Barbara Novich, Oral History
Renee Trel, Historic Sites
- Linda Keil, Quilt Diary
Doris Cohen, Lodal Indian Adv.
✓ Anthony Pirrotti, Legal Adv.
Consulting Historian

For our Society to succeed we need your talents.

Join us at our next meeting, on Wednesday, June 23, 1982, St. Barnabas Hall, Revolutionary Road, Ardsley, 8:00 P.M.
